Biography:

William Manners R.B.A. (Exh. 1890 - 1920). Painter of landscapes and rural genre in oils and watercolours. Born in Bradford, and lived in that area until about 1900. Later, moved to Westmoreland and the Lake District. The Furness countryside provided subjects for many of his landscapes. Exhibited at the Royal Academy and the Royal Society of British Artists. He was elected to the R.B.A. in 1893
